The story of Christmas is such an amazing story. When you read verses such as Ephesians 1:4-5 that says that God "chose us in Him before the foundation of the world... (that we may be adopted) as sons by Jesus Christ," that just stretches your mind. Before this world was created, God knew you and I would need a Savior. Before there was one date on the calendar of our earth's existence, God had already scheduled the birth of his one and only Son Jesus. The times of His life, death, burial and resurrection were also placed on earth's calendar, before there was this earth.

I don't know about you, but I stand in awe of such sovereign might. Like the Psalmist, it causes me to say, "Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain it" (Psalm 139:6).

But as high and lofty such thoughts are, Christmas is still so approachable. It is the story of a Creator's love for His creation. It is a love shown in the humble birth of His Son. A love shown in a life lived in simplicity. A love shown is His willingness to "give His only Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life" (John 3:16)

The story of Christmas is such an amazing story.

Christmas blessings to all.

It is hard to believe that Jane and I have started our eighth year of service with you here at HSBC. Through those years we have seen God do some amazing mighty works. We have paid off our building debt many years early. We have seen growth in ministries, attendance and most important, spiritual growth in individual's lives. We have gone beyond the walls of our church to minister to our community and through mission trips to minister within our state and internationally.

You have expressed your love and support for us in so many ways. For that we are more than grateful.

Only God knows what the future holds, but may we approach it confidently and with expectation as we anticipate many more mighty works of God.

Thank you, God bless and Merry Christmas!

Pastor Charles & Jane

Nehemiah said, "Go and enjoy choice food and sweet drinks, and send some to those who have nothing prepared. This day is holy to our Lord. Do not grieve, for the joy of the LORD is your strength." Nehemiah 8:10

Do you realize the Jewish people grieved prior to the birth of Christ as they waited so long for the Messiah and in absence of any message from God? How blessed we are to know Him!

Discipleship

Plan on joining us in January for our winter Women's Monday Night or Wednesday Evening Bible Study. We will be studying two 6-week lessons by Priscilla Shirer, Can We Talk and He Speaks To Me. More info to come. Contact Brenda Jones or Lorri Landon.

Daytime studies beginning in January are still in process. Stay tuned!

Fellowship

Get out your calendars and mark a few dates to remember. Our annual Ladies' Cookie Swap will be held on Thursday, December 8, from 6:30-8:30 pm. Lillie Mack will be our hostess. Contact Joy Taylor for more information.

The Ladies' Carry-In Lunch will be at the church on Tuesday, December 13 at noon. Please sign up in the foyer. We won't have a program, just some good conversation over lunch. Children are welcome, but childcare is not provided. Contact Brenda Jones.

More information on these events can be found elsewhere in the newsletter.

Service

As I began to put the newsletter together, a thank-you note was hand-delivered from one of the Head Start groups which were our Servants of the Month for November. The woman who dropped by was so thankful and appreciated that they were remembered and loved on. We often receive thank you notes from the monthly recipients. Stop by the office window where you can read their kind words for your gifts.

In December the Servant of the Month ministry takes a break, so this month please be praying for those servants like those who work at the Head Start daycares, that they will find joy in their work and Christ's joy will give them strength.

What a blessing it has been to partner with Stacy Tucker-Potter and Tony Potter with Love, Lily. A number of women and their babies have been blessed to receive your donations of layette items through the LifeLine Pregnancy Resource Center. This ministry continues to receive contributions. Thank you for your donations and support of this ministry thus far. If you are a crafter, quilter, crocheter or knitter and would like to make a donation, contact Stacy Tucker-Potter. Materials are also welcomed.

Ministry

In the days following the on-site visit from Mommies with Hope co-founder, Teske Drake, and her co-facilitator, Shayla Hood, our Higher Hope leaders have revisited the benefits and constraints of affiliating with this group. To that end, our leaders have rescinded their previous decision to unite with Mommies with Hope.

Sarah Mack and Joy Taylor have rewritten the ministry's purpose, the mission statement and job description for Higher Hope Ministry. These revisions and the new plans were submitted to Church Council for their review in November before being presented to the church at the January Business Meeting. Please be in prayer with us as we continue to seek the Lord's will regarding this ministry.

Watch for dates for future meetings to attend and invite others to attend. This group is not limited by age. No matter your age now, if you have ever experienced the loss of a child (pregnancy, infant, or early childhood) you are welcome & encouraged to attend these meetings.

Prayer

Saturday, December 10 will be our next Women's Prayer Breakfast. Meet us at Rosie's Northtown Café at 9 am. Attendance continues to grow at this event. As with any of our activities, guests are welcome! No RSVP is necessary, but if you would like more information, please contact Pam Barnett.

Do you have a need you would like to share with our women's ministry prayer team? There's a box on the Women's Resource Table in the foyer to place your requests, or call Jane Jackson.

Although the day we celebrate as Christmas is likely not the actual day of Christ's birth, what joy we can find in this season! May your heart rejoice and be glad, for the joy of the LORD is your strength.

Sunday School NEWS

Isn't the celebration of Christ's birth just the BEST time of the year? Almost the whole world seems to be celebrating with us. But, of course that isn't really true. Many celebrations are contrived, based on imaginary figures or stories, centered on activities rather than relationships, or are attempts to re-create nostalgic memories.

A Christian celebration should be different—based on the very real Jesus and the salvation He brought to man, centered on a personal relationship with Christ, with actions guided by God. Let's try to not get pulled into a secular view of Christmas, but instead show others what a Christ-centered celebration looks like. This time of the year, you may come across people who are wondering about the emptiness of their holiday celebrations. If God puts such a person in your path, please share what you know about the "reason for the season."

If this season reminds you of our call to live a Christ-centered life, Sunday morning Bible studies (or the other HSBC Bible studies) can help you with that. There is a blessing in joining like-minded people learning more about God through a study of the Scriptures. We have a class for you; let me know if you need help in finding it (or in starting a new class). Go as God leads!

I am praying for a blessed Christmas for you and your family.

Elsie Rudd, Sunday School Director,

A Note from the Minister of Music

It was Christmas Eve in the Austrian Alps. In the village of Tyrol near Salzburg, Father Joseph Mohr prepared for the midnight church service. He was distraught because the church organ was broken and he feared that this would ruin the evening's carefully planned music.

But the Lord causes all things to work for the good to those who love Him. A new song was born in Father Mohr's mind—a song that could be sung without an organ. He quickly wrote the words silent night, holy night, all is calm, all is bright. He then took the words to his friend, Franz Gruber, and asked him to compose a simple tune. That night, December 24, 1818, "Silent Night" was sung for the first time as a duet accompanied by a guitar at the Church of St. Nicholas in Oberndorf.

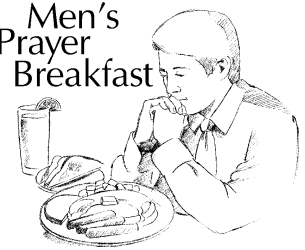

The song, entitled "Trioler Volkslied", was later performed by the Strasser Family at various fairs and festivals throughout the Alps. In 1838 it was published in a German hymnbook. Were it not for a broken organ, there would never have been a "Silent Night." And if it were not for an all-loving God, there would not have been a special baby born at Christmas—a baby that was sent to become our Savior and Lord.

From our family to yours—have a very blessed Christmas!!

Wow! Thank you to everyone who participated in Operation Christmas Child! As a church, we donated 79 shoe boxes as well as additional cash gifts for shipping.

Now we will hopefully remember to continue to pray for the children who will receive our boxes. 79 precious children. 79 families loved by God. I am awed by the potential that our simple shoe box gifts provide. I am amazed how God is already working in the lives of each of those 79 children, preparing them to hear about how much Jesus loves them! As I was packing one of our last boxes, I felt led by God to include a pair of shoes. When I purchased the shoes on clearance several months ago, I had intended them to be for our boys. But God was clearly working even then, and I am convinced that He is now working in the heart of the little boy who will find a pair of blue sneakers in his box. I am so thankful that He would allow us to be part of His plan for reaching these children with the gospel message.

The purpose of the Church is to glorify God by fulfilling the Great Commandment

³⁶"Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?" ³⁷Jesus replied: " 'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.' ³⁸This is the first and greatest commandment. ³⁹And the second is like it: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'

⁴⁰All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments." Matthew 22:36-40)

and the Great Commission

¹⁸Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. ¹⁹Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age." Matthew 28:18-20).

We have had two guest speakers on Wednesday nights. The first was Mrs. Bane, a teacher from Kirksville Senior High School, who lost her arm to cancer at the age of 15. She had an incredible testimony about the struggles that she went through and how God helped her through them. Our second speaker was a former Lifeline Resource Pregnancy Center counselor who brought us a program about "Choices." Her message emphasized abstinence until marriage and God's plan for our sex lives. Both speakers were powerful and important topics for our youth to hear about. We are looking for a speaker with a testimony about drug use.

Our group continues to grow. Be in prayer about this as we have a need for workers, room, and ways to reach out to these kids and their families. We are averaging somewhere around 15 youth, the largest number in recent years. Please be supportive, patient, and encouraging towards these youth as some are from severely disadvantaged families. I feel challenged as they look to our church to try to find what normal is. We are trying to transition some from just Wednesday night kids to Sunday mornings as well.

We will be delivering our "Loving our Neighbors" food baskets in December. Thanks for your giving as this has turned into an awesome outreach. It is starting to open some doors and give us some opportunities to change some lives. This is a huge mission field right here in Kirksville, Mo., within blocks of our church. It's not hard work, and it doesn't take a lot of time, but the rewards last an eternity! If you want to be a missionary without leaving home, ask Cheryl or one of the Youth and Family Committee members how you can help.

In December we will be getting ready for some type of Christmas program for December 17th and a Christmas party.

I discovered that vanilla is an export of the Comoros Islands. Well, I use vanilla a lot, so while I am baking this Christmas holiday, every time I use my vanilla I am going to pray that God will open doors for the people of the Comoros Islands to hear about Christ!

FROM THE HOSTESS COMMITTEE

We want to thank you all for such a wonderful year. We have had so many great functions. The Hostess Committee has been very busy this year, but we are so glad God has kept us that way. That tells us we are growing and church members are active. Praise the Lord.

As for myself and a couple others, we will be retiring from the kitchen. Due to health reasons, etc., we won't be able to continue with the committee this coming year. We hope there are some of you out there that will step up and volunteer to fill those vacancies and keep the kitchen 'cooking up good food'. If you are interested call the office or tell me and I will pass it on to the nominating committee.

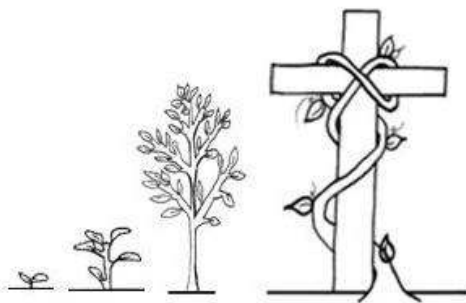

Again thank you for letting us serve you these past few years.

Brenda Jones

Our November WMU meeting was well attended. We discussed possible mission projects for the future. The December meeting will be Thursday, December 8, at 1:30 p.m. We will have a special Lottie Moon presentation by Pam Barnett. Please plan to attend and learn more about Lottie and her history on the mission field.

Planting Today
Harvesting Tomorrow
II Corinthians 9:8

Thank you to everyone who supported our Planting Today Harvesting Tomorrow emphasis.

Through this process many have seen their faith grow as they sought the Lord and then responded obediently to His leading. Now that the initial commitments have been made, it is time to seek the Lord as to how best use those commitments to fulfill His work through this church. Be in prayer for the Building Committee as they meet and prayerfully consider how best to use our resources. At the January Business meeting on Sunday the 8th, they will probably make a recommendation or two. Be much in prayer as we continue to seek God's will for His future for our church.

Summary of Church Council Agenda Items

Church council recently discussed the following:

 Family Devotions have been made accessible during November, Cheryl is writing devotions for Advent.

 A comprehensive plan to minister to each HSBC family was discussed.

 Nominating Committee members were contacted for 2012 service. Church Council members will be contacting others to serve on the 2012 committee with those who agreed to continue.

 The order of worship for the 50th anniversary celebration will have many elements and speakers.

 A new ministry proposal and job description for Higher Hope were reviewed. There was consensus in recommending the ministry to the church along with the Women's Ministry, with Church Council recommending the job description.

 It was decided January Bible Study would be offered as the Pastor's class beginning January 11th. Children's classes will continue to use their current curriculum. May 2nd will be the tentative end of the spring programming.

 Pastor Charles and Jane plan to go to France in April 2012.

 Several members of the Hostess Committee are stepping down. The Nominating Committee asked for recommendations. It was suggested the name of the committee be changed to something like Hospitality Committee to encourage men to feel more comfortable serving there.

The letter that started it all

The following letter, written by Lottie Moon on Sept. 15, 1887, was printed in the Foreign Mission Journal in December of that year. It is credited with providing the impetus for the creation of a Southern Baptist offering to support international missions, which later became the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for International Missions.

In a former letter I called attention to the work of Southern Methodist women, endeavoring to use it as an incentive to stir up the women of our Southern Baptist churches to a greater zeal in the cause of missions. I have lately been reading the minutes of the ninth annual meeting of the Woman's Board of Missions, M. E. South, and find that in the year ending in June, they raised over sixty-six thousand dollars. Their work in China alone involved the expenditure of more than thirty-four thousand dollars, besides which they have missions in Mexico, Brazil, and the Indian Territory. They have nine workers in China, with four more under appointment and two others recommended by the committee for appointment. I notice that when a candidate is appointed, straightway some conference society pledges her support in whole or in part. One lady is to be sent out by means of the liberal offer of a Nashville gentleman, to contribute six hundred dollars for travelling expenses. A gentleman in Kansas gave five thousand dollars to build a church in Shanghai in connection with woman's work there.

The efficient officers of this Methodist Woman's organization do their work without pay. Travelling and office expenses are allowed the President of the Board of Missions. This money is to be used at her discretion in visiting conference societies that are not able to pay her expenses. Office expenses alone are allowed the Corresponding Secretary and her assistant, and also to the Treasurer. A sum is appropriated for publications, postage, and mite boxes. The expenses for all purposes are less than seventeen hundred dollars. In a word, Southern Methodist women, in one year, have contributed to missions, clear of all expenses, nearly sixty-five thousand dollars! Doesn't this put us Baptist women to shame? For one, I confess I am heartily ashamed.

I am convinced that one of the chief reasons our Southern Baptist women do so little is the lack of organization. Why should we not learn from these noble

Methodist women, and instead of the paltry offerings we make, do something that will prove that we are really in earnest in claiming to be followers of him who, though he was rich, for our sake became poor? How do these Methodist women raise so much money? By prayer and self-denial. Note the resolution unanimously approved by the meeting above:

Resolved, That this Board recommend to the Woman's Missionary Society to observe the week preceding Christmas as a week of prayer and self-denial. In preparation for this,

Resolved, That we agree to pray every evening for six months, dating from June 25, 1887, for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit on the Woman's Missionary Society and its work at home and in the foreign fields.

Need it be said, why the week before Christmas is chosen? Is not it the festive season when families and friends exchange gifts in memory of The Gift laid on the altar of the world for the redemption of the human race, the most appropriate time to consecrate a portion from abounding riches and scant poverty to send forth the good tidings of great joy into all the earth?

In seeking organization we do not need to adopt plans or methods unsuitable to the views, or repugnant to the tastes of our brethren. What we want is not power, but simply combination in order to elicit the largest possible giving. Power of appointment and of disbursing funds should be left, as heretofore, in the hands of the Foreign Mission Board. Separate organization is undesirable, and would do harm; but organization in subordination to the Board is the imperative need of the hour.

Some years ago the Southern Methodist Mission in China had run down to the lowest water-mark; the rising of the tide seems to have begun with the enlisting of the women of the church in the cause of missions. The previously unexampled increase in missionary zeal and activity in the Northern Presbyterian church is attributed to the same reason: the thorough awakening of the women of the church upon the subject of missions. In like manner, until the women of the Southern Baptist churches are thoroughly aroused, we shall continue to go on in our present hand to mouth system. We shall continue to see mission stations so poorly manned that missionaries break down from overwork, loneliness, and isolation; we shall continue to see promising mission fields unentered and old stations languishing; and we shall continue to see other denominations no richer and no better educated than ours, outstripping us in the race. I wonder how many of us really believe that it is more blessed to give than to receive? A woman who accepts that statement of our Lord Jesus Christ as a fact, and not as impractical idealism, will make giving a principle of her life. She will lay aside sacredly not less than one-tenth of her income or her earnings as the Lord's money, which she would no more dare to touch for personal use than she would steal. How many there are among our women, alas! alas! who imagine that because Jesus paid it all, they need pay nothing, forgetting that the prime object of their salvation was that they should follow in the footsteps of Jesus Christ in bringing back a lost world to God, and so aid in bringing the answer to the petition our Lord taught his disciples: Thy kingdom come.
